

DO NOT change the current FCC rules to put the media control into fewer, richer hands. We need to expand opportunities to keep a free press, not place more limitations and control.